2 TRUST; and DOES 1 to 10 (“Defendants”) and alleges as follows:

3 PARTIES

4 1. Plaintiff is a California resident with a physical disability. Plaintiff suffers

7 public.

8 2. Defendants are, or were at the time of the incident, the real property owners,

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

6. The Court has jurisdiction of this action pursuant to 28 USC §§ 1331 and 1343 for violation of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, (42 USC §12101, et seq.).

7. Pursuant to pendant jurisdiction, attendant and related causes of action, arising from the same nucleus of operating facts, are also brought under California law, including, but not limited to, violations of California Civil Code §§51, 51.5, 52(a), 52.1, 54, 54., 54.3 and 55.

8. Plaintiff's claims are authorized by 28 USC §§ 2201 and 2202.

9. Venue is proper in this court pursuant to 28 USC §1391(b). The real property which is the subject of this action is located in this district, Los Angeles County, California, and that all actions complained of herein take place in this district.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

10. In or about May of 2024, Plaintiff went to the Business.

11. The Business is a barber shop business establishment, open to the public, and is a place of public accommodation that affects commerce through its operation.

12. While attempting to enter the Business during each visit, Plaintiff personally encountered a number of barriers that interfered with his ability to use and enjoy the goods, services, privileges, and accommodations offered at the Business.

13. To the extent of Plaintiff's personal knowledge, the barriers at the Business included, but were not limited to, the following:

- a. Defendants failed to maintain accessibility for persons with disabilities to comply with the federal and state standards. Defendants failed to provide at least one accessible entrance as required as there were stairs instead of a compliant ramp.

14. These barriers and conditions denied Plaintiff the full and equal access to the Business and caused Plaintiff difficulty and frustration. Plaintiff wishes to return and patronize the Business; however, Plaintiff is deterred from visiting the Business because

1 his knowledge of these violations prevents him from returning until the barriers are 2 removed.

3 15. Based on the violations, Plaintiff alleges, on information and belief, that
4 there are additional barriers to accessibility at the Business after further site inspection.
5 Plaintiff seeks to have all barriers related to his disability remedied. *See Doran v. 7-
6 Eleven, Inc.* 524 F.3d 1034 (9th Cir. 2008).

7 16. In addition, Plaintiff alleges, on information and belief, that Defendants
8 knew that particular barriers render the Business inaccessible, violate state and federal 9 law, and interfere with access for the physically disabled.

10 17. At all relevant times, Defendants had and still have control and dominion 11 over the conditions at this location and had and still have the financial resources to 12 remove these barriers without much difficulty or expenses to make the Business
13 accessible to the physically disabled in compliance with ADDAG and Title 24
14 regulations. Defendants have not removed such barriers and have not modified the 15 Business to conform to accessibility regulations.

16 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

17 VIOLATION OF THE AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT OF 1990

18 18. Plaintiff incorporates by reference each of the allegations in all prior 19 paragraphs in this complaint.

20 19. Under the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (“ADA”), no individual 21 shall be discriminated against on the basis of disability in the full and equal enjoyment of 22 the goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, or accommodations of any place of 23 public accommodation by any person who owns, leases, or leases to, or operates a place
24 of public accommodation. See 42 U.S.C. § 12182(a).

25 20. Discrimination, inter alia, includes:

- 26 a. A failure to make reasonable modification in policies, practices, or 27 procedures, when such modifications are necessary to afford such 28 goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, or accommodations

1 to individuals with disabilities, unless the entity can demonstrate that 2 making such modifications would fundamentally alter the nature of 3 such goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, or 4 accommodations. 42 U.S.C. § 12182(b)(2)(A)(ii).

5 b. A failure to take such steps as may be necessary to ensure that no
6 individual with a disability is excluded, denied services, segregated or 7 otherwise treated differently than other individuals because of the 8 absence of auxiliary aids and services, unless the entity can 9 demonstrate that taking such steps would fundamentally alter the 10 nature of the good, service, facility, privilege, advantage, or 11 accommodation being offered or would result in an undue burden. 42
12 U.S.C. § 12182(b)(2)(A)(iii).

13 c. A failure to remove architectural barriers, and communication barriers
14 that are structural in nature, in existing facilities, and transportation 15 barriers in existing vehicles and rail passenger cars used by an 16 establishment for transporting individuals (not including barriers that 17 can only be removed through the retrofitting of vehicles or rail 18 passenger cars by the installation of a hydraulic or other lift), where 19 such removal is readily achievable. 42 U.S.C. § 12182(b)(2)(A)(iv).

20 d. A failure to make alterations in such a manner that, to the maximum 21 extent feasible, the altered portions of the facility are readily
22 accessible to and usable by individuals with disabilities, including 23 individuals who use wheelchairs or to ensure that, to the maximum 24 extent feasible, the path of travel to the altered area and the 25 bathrooms, telephones, and drinking fountains serving the altered
26 area, are readily accessible to and usable by individuals with 27 disabilities where such alterations to the path or travel or the 28 bathrooms, telephones, and drinking fountains serving the altered area are not disproportionate to the overall alterations in terms of cost and scope. 42 U.S.C. § 12183(a)(2).

21. At least one accessible route shall connect accessible building, facilities, elements, and spaces that are on the same site. 1991 ADA Standards § 4.3.2. A public accommodation shall maintain in operable working condition those features of facilities and equipment that are required to be readily accessible to and usable by persons with disabilities by the Act or this part. 28 C.F.R. 35.211(a).

22. Here, Defendants failed to provide at least one accessible entrance to the Business as the entrance had stairs instead of a proper ramp.

23. A public accommodation shall maintain in operable working condition those features of facilities and equipment that are required to be readily accessible to and usable by persons with disabilities by the Act or this part. 28 C.F.R. 35.211(a).

24. By failing to maintain the facility to be readily accessible and usable by Plaintiff, Defendants are in violation of Plaintiff's rights under the ADA and its related regulations.

25. The Business has denied and continues to deny full and equal access to Plaintiff and to other people with disabilities. Plaintiff has been and will continue to be discriminated against due to the lack of accessible facilities, and therefore, seeks injunctive relief to alter facilities to make such facilities readily accessible to and usable by individuals with disabilities.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

VIOLATION OF THE UNRUH CIVIL RIGHTS ACT

26. Plaintiff incorporates by reference each of the allegations in all prior paragraphs in this complaint.

27. California Civil Code § 51 states, "All persons within the jurisdiction of this state are free and equal, and no matter what their sex, race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, disability, medical condition, genetic information, marital status, sexual orientation, citizenship, primary language, or immigration status are entitled to the full

6 determined by a jury, or a court sitting without a jury, up to a maximum of three times the 7 amount of actual damage but in no case less than four thousand dollars ($4,000) and any 8 attorney’s fees that may be determined by the court in addition thereto, suffered by any

12 shall also constitute a violation of this section.”

13 30. The actions and omissions of Defendants alleged herein constitute a denial
14 of full and equal accommodation, advantages, facilities, privileges, or services by 15 physically disabled persons within the meaning of California Civil Code §§ 51 and 52.
16 Defendants have discriminated against Plaintiff in violation of California Civil Code §§
17 51 and 52.

19 difficulty, discomfort, or embarrassment. The Defendants are also liable for statutory 20 damages as specified in California Civil Code §55.56(a)-(c).

21 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

22 VIOLATION OF CALIFORNIA DISABLED PERSONS ACT

23 32. Plaintiff incorporates by reference each of the allegations in all prior

25 33. California Civil Code § 54.1(a) states, “Individuals with disabilities shall be 26 entitled to full and equal access, as other members of the general public, to 27 accommodations, advantages, facilities, medical facilities, including hospitals, clinics,
28 and physicians’ offices, and privileges of all common carriers, airplanes, motor vehicles,

1 railroad trains, motorbuses, streetcars, boats, or any other public conveyances or modes
2 of transportation (whether private, public, franchised, licensed, contracted, or otherwise
3 provided), telephone facilities, adoption agencies, private schools, hotels, loading places,
4 places of public accommodations, amusement, or resort, and other places in which the 5 general public is invited, subject only to the conditions and limitations established by 6 law, or state or federal regulation, and applicable alike to all persons.

7 34. California Civil Code § 54.3(a) states, “Any person or persons, firm or 8 corporation who denies or interferes with admittance to or enjoyment of public facilities
9 as specified in Sections 54 and 54.1 or otherwise interferes with the rights of an 10 individual with a disability under Sections 54, 54.1 and 54.2 is liable for each offense for 11 the actual damages, and any amount as may be determined by a jury, or a court sitting
12 without a jury, up to a maximum of three times the amount of actual damages but in no
13 case less than one thousand dollars ($1,000) and any attorney’s fees that may be
14 determined by the court in addition thereto, suffered by any person denied the rights
15 provided in Section 54, 54.1, and 54.2.

16 35. California Civil Code § 54(d) specifies, “a violation of the right of an 17 individual under Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (Public Law 101-336) also 18 constitute a violation of this section, and nothing in this section shall be construed to limit
19 the access of any person in violation of that act.

20 36. The actions and omissions of Defendants alleged herein constitute a denial
21 of full and equal accommodation, advantages, and facilities by physically disabled
22 persons within the meaning of California Civil Code § 54. Defendants have 23 discriminated against Plaintiff in violation of California Civil Code § 54.

24 37. The violations of the California Disabled Persons Act caused Plaintiff to 25 experience difficulty, discomfort, and embarrassment. The Defendants are also liable for 26 statutory damages as specified in California Civil Code §55.56(a)-(c).

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

CALIFORNIA HEALTH & SAFETY CODE § 19955, et seq.

38. Plaintiff incorporates by reference each of the allegations in all prior paragraphs in this complaint.

39. Plaintiff and other similar physically disabled persons who require the use of a wheelchair are unable to use public facilities on a “full and equal” basis unless each such facility is in compliance with the provisions of California Health & Safety Code § 19955 et seq. Plaintiff is a member of the public whose rights are protected by the provisions of California Health & Safety Code § 19955 et seq.

40. The purpose of California Health & Safety Code § 1995 et seq. is to ensure that public accommodations or facilities constructed in this state with private funds adhere to the provisions of Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 4450) of Division 5 of Title 1 of the Government Code. The code relating to such public accommodations also require that “when sanitary facilities are made available for the public, clients, or employees in these stations, centers, or buildings, they shall be made available for persons with disabilities.

41. Title II of the ADA holds as a “general rule” that no individual shall be discriminated against on the basis of disability in the full and equal enjoyment of goods (or use), services, facilities, privileges, and accommodations offered by any person who owns, operates, or leases a place of public accommodation. 42 U.S.C. § 12182(a). Further, each and every violation of the ADA also constitutes a separate and distinct violation of California Civil Code §§ 54(c) and 54.1(d), thus independently justifying an award of damages and injunctive relief pursuant to California law, including but not limited to Civil Code § 54.3 and Business and Professions Code § 17200, et seq.
